

Award-winning sportscasters

Local sports broadcasters Carroll Lee Ashburn, left, and Demetrius Means of 101.7 Bay FM in Kilmarnock have been covering sports together on the Northern Neck and Middle Peninsula for the past 22 years. The duo took the top award for Outstanding Sports Coverage for their reporting of the Lancaster High School boys' state basketball championship game from the Virginia Association of Broadcasters at the organization's 81st annual Summer Convention, which was held June 21-23 in Virginia Beach. The championship game against Eastside High School was the 438th game the two have covered together. Ashburn and Means also won the award in 2011.

PRLGA competition winners named

The Piankatank River Ladies Golf Association continued its season on July 5 with a three-person Captain's Choice format at the Hartfield course.

First-place honors went to the team of Michele Meanley, Chong Hudgins and Marny Richardson with a score of 67. Second-place winners were Nina Carter, Betty Johnson and Christy Pitts, while third place went to the team of Gloria Matthews, Bev Hudgins and Chrystal Welch, who scored a 74.